ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Circuit Court Clerk.
We are authorized to announce CHARLES E. FORD, of Louisville, as a candidate for the office of Circuit Court Clerk of Ohio county, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

Nobody would reap a richer reward from Uncle Mark Hanna's negro-pension scheme than the white pension sharks.

We want to say to the fellow who thinks he can come to Hartford these days and kick up a dust, that he is badly mistaken. We just dare him to do it.

The fact that many people did not notice the recent earthquake in Kentucky, only proves the common theory that it takes a whole lot to shock some people.

MR. BRYAN is but human, like the rest of us. Perhaps the reason he has declined to sit at a banquet with Mr. Cleveland is that he thinks he would be compelled to listen to one of Governor's fish stories.

Gov. TAFT, of the Philippines, has just recovered from a serious illness caused by drinking water-infected water. It seems that Kentucky's famous liquid product has not reached our far-off possessions.

OWENSBORO is bothered over her water supply and her city council is threatening to dig a lot of wells in different parts of the city. Why not take that big electric light chimney and stick it down in the ground somewhere?

It may sound paradoxical when compared with our liquor output and the unsavory reputation we have gained along this line, but it is said there are more "water witches" who practice their profession in Kentucky than in any other Southern State.

The Fifty-seventh Congress will expire by limitation two weeks from today. It has not been a particularly interesting nor productive session so far as good legislation is concerned. There have been rumors of an extra session, but that is hardly probable.

WHILE MR. HANNA is pushing (?) his bill to pension ex-slaves, why doesn't some prominent Republican introduce a measure to financially reward the present slaves the great mass of negroes who continue to vote the Republican ticket regularly without any sort of recognition or reward?

ALONG with her other industries, America is to furnish the leather with idols. Mr. Kohnsken, of Seoul, Korea, is now on his way to New York and Philadelphia to contract for idols to be used in the temples of his country. He is sent by a wholesale firm and has models with him.

At a speech in Columbus, O., last week, Col. W. J. Bryan started a boom for Mr. W. H. Hearst as a Democratic Presidential candidate. Mr. Hearst lives in New York, and is proprietor of the Journal, of that city, but is a native of California. He is a young man, but a millionaire.

The old adage that there is a rose to every thorn, finds fulfillment in the lives of many men. Every privilege and pleasure has its drawback. Some millionaires would be glad to have the good appetite and digestion of the poor workman, while a majority of the latter are striving for the riches of the former.

GRAYSON county has a promising young authoress in the person of Miss May Spencer, who has just issued a story in book form entitled, "The Spray of Honey-suckle, or Cast up by the Waves." It is a story of deep pathos and entrancing interest. Miss Spencer is a beautiful young lady of patrician features, but is very unpretending in her ways. She is only nineteen years old, but seems to write with the force of a veteran. Old Grayson should be proud of her talented young writer.

NOTWITHSTANDING modern knowledge and sagacity, the secret of long life is about as far off as ever. Physically the nonagenarians are unusually of medium size; few are bald, but they have a conspicuous shortage of teeth and eyesight. And they are not overfond of bathing or fresh air. Some smoke and some drink. One of these old fellows asserts that he never washed his feet in his life. They are mostly married folks and of a contented, happy disposition. It will be noticed that these are exceptions to the modern ways of living.

The extravagance of the present national administration has assumed proportions which excite much concern. Never before has it cost nearly as much as it does now to run the White House. There has been a great increase along all lines of expense, notably the perquisites for public entertainments, and furnishings on which dealers reap enormous profits. President Roosevelt has tried strenuously to keep the matter quiet, but the facts will leak out. It is evident that it is a kind of extravagance which affords no reason compatible with the lowest kind of economy.

THE Indiana (Miss.) postoffice is still without an incumbent and the people of that thriving village are compelled to send to a town 20 miles away for their mail or to post a letter or resort to mail facilities of their own contrivance and paid for out of their own pockets. The people of the United States never witnessed such an outrage before upon an innocent and blameless citizenship. They simply did not want a negro postmaster and said so in the most peaceable manner possible—by petition. By refusing to make this appointment, the President is punishing the people of Indiana for daring to peaceably assemble and petition the Government for the redress of grievances—a right guaranteed them by the constitution. The attempt to punish them for this act is something foreign to the law and to the Executive authority.

THE Democratic State Primary is not far off—May 9th—yet there seems to be but very little interest taken in the matter by the voters. It is desired by the State Committee that as many counties as possible hold the primary free of charge. As an aid to this aim, good and patriotic Democrats in every precinct are asked to voluntarily offer their services as election officers. The committee will of course furnish all necessary ballots, stencils, pads, etc. Almost any loyal Democrat should be willing to do this much for his party. How many Ohio county Democrats will step to the front in this matter?

We believe Hartford has more pretty girls than any other town of its size in Kentucky. They are not only the pride of fond parents, but the pride of our people. If there is anything that engages the attention and admiration of the lovers of the beautiful in life, it is sweet young womanhood, endowed with all those pure graces of mind and character which make her the idol of acquaintances and the worshipped of kindred—the delicate link that binds earth to heaven and gives us our best conception of an angel. When God spoke female life, He gave man his greatest earthly blessing, and girlhood is the sweet bud that blossoms into glorious womanhood.

ST. JAMES DEWEES, writing in the last issue of the Hartford Republican, says:

In the "Franchise Tax" editorial in this issue, the writer displays a miserable and contemptible ignorance of the common school law, or knowledge not worthily perverted to the face of it. Nowhere does the school law say that the Superintendent shall collect any tax whatever.

We respectfully refer our benighted School Superintendent to Section 4100, Kentucky Statutes, latest edition, which reads as follows:

SCHOOL TAX TO BE PAID TO SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENT.—All taxes against any railroad company, which shall be levied in any common school district, shall be paid to the Superintendent of common schools of the county for the benefit of the district entitled thereto.

Now tell us, Jamie, please sir, who displays "a miserable and contemptible ignorance of the common school law?"

It is generally conceded that no good project of extensive dimensions can be successfully prosecuted without money. The Kentucky Legislature failed to appropriate a cent that our grand old State should be creditably represented at the great World's Fair. If our State is represented there at all, the case will have to be taken up by the different counties, according as they feel their own importance in the matter. The fiscal courts of several counties in Kentucky have appropriated sums ranging from $200 to $5,000 for the purpose of setting their resources and advantages forth at St. Louis next year. It takes money to do it and this is really the best plan, as it is a small item to the taxpayers. Ohio county must be known at the big World's Fair. We suggest that our fiscal court forward this good movement by an appropriation of $500 to the fund.

In the newspapers and periodicals nowadays may be seen advertised various "get-rich-quick" concerns. It seems that it would hardly be necessary to warn the public against these institutions, yet it is evident that they catch many suckers, or they would not continue to exist. To those who have a little money and want to invest it, these are commended by the best financial experience: "Don't spend it; don't lend it. Don't trust it to strangers without security. Don't invest it to earn more than 10 or 15 percent. It would be hard to improve upon these rules in the matter of saving and investment. Shrewd investors are satisfied with small yet sure returns, and they steer clear of every inducement promising quick gain that the common-sense man must know is a pure swindle.

Foley's Honey and Tar cures the cough caused by attack of the gripple. It heals the lungs. J. H. Williams, m.

Styrene Instead of Morphine.
SPRINGFIELD, Ky., Feb. 16.—Alex Sutton, as administrator of his wife, Annie Sutton, through his attorneys, John W. Lewis, W. C. McChord and W. D. Claybrook, filed suit in the Circuit Court here for $10,000 damages against the Wood Drug Company, alleging that Mrs. Sutton died from the effects of styrene furnished her by this drug company when she asked for morphine.

The Easy Pill.
DeWitt's Little Early Risers do not gripe nor weaken the system. They cure biliousness, jaundice, constipation and inactive livers, by arousing the secretions, moving the bowels gently, yet effectually, and giving such tone and strength to the glands of the stomach, liver and bowels that the cause of the trouble is removed entirely. These famous little pills exert a decided tonic effect upon the organs involved, and if their use is continued for a few days there will be no return of the trouble. J. H. Williams, druggist.

Red Bird's Longevity.
KOKOMO, Ind., Feb. 16.—A Tennessee redbird, owned by Mrs. Frank Hurlinger, of this city, died to-day at the age of 24 years. This is considered a remarkable age for a bird. Two days before it died the bird went blind.

When you lack energy, do not rely upon your food, feed and stupid after eating, all you need is a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach & Liver Tablets. They will make you feel like a new man and give you an appetite like a bear. For sale by Z. Wayne Griffin & Bro., Hartford, Ky.

NEGRO GUESTS

Were at This White Man's Banquet—White Girls Compelled to Wait on Them.

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Feb. 16.—Considerable criticism has been aroused in Utah over the action of Senator-elect Reed Smoot in seating some negroes at a banquet with white people and having white girls serve them. The Southerners now living in the state express themselves on the subject with special vigor. "And to think," said one of them to-day, "that Smoot's father was a Kentuckian and a slaveholder! It must have made the old man turn over in his grave!"

Friends of Smoot defend his course. He himself is quoted as saying in explanation: "If President Roosevelt is not too good to entertain a colored man at the White House, I do not see why I should not have colored people as my guests."

The occasion at which this incident took place was the banquet given by Apostle and Mrs. Smoot to the members of the Legislature and the State officials in Provo. Invitations were given the officers of both Houses of the Legislature.

One of the doorkeepers of the lower House is a colored man who in private life is a janitor and politician. He received an invitation. He took along with him a couple of friends with their wives.

One of the other men called of a weekly paper for colored people, and still another is employed as a porter.

On a special train going from Salt Lake to Provo they kept to themselves. They endeavored for some time to get guests' badges, but failed until late in the afternoon. They went to the banquet and seated themselves beside some white people. Some of the guests rose and went to another table. Others, however, remained next the colored contingent. The waiters were white girls. Several of them refused to wait on the negroes, but finally two agreed to do so. Senator Smoot himself superintended the seating arrangements.

Mother can safely give Foley's Honey and Tar to their children for colds and coughs, for it contains no opiates or other poisons. J. H. Williams.

Valentines For Teddy.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—Little bigger babies were received by the doors at the White House this morning. They came as valentines for the President. They came from the North and South, the high and low. They had typical lines underneath and were good-humored, not vicious. The President laughed heartily over them and directed that they be sent to the children, who were playing in the back yard. Some of the valentines represented the President as a rough rider.

You Know What You Are Taking
When you take Grove's Tasteless Chills Cure, you are taking a medicine that is pure, printed on every bottle, showing that it is simply Iron and Quinine in a tasteless form. No Cure, No Pay. 50c.

Mr. Bryan Will not be a Candidate.

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—The Evening Telephone prints an interview with Mr. Bryan, in which he said under no consideration will he again be a candidate for the Democratic Presidential nomination. He said the active issues before the country now were the question of trusts, imperialism, tariff, money question and many others. As to the probable candidates Mr. Bryan said he preferred not discussing the subject.

$100 Reward, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer one Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Sold by Druggists, 75c.
Hall's Family Pills are the best. m

Death Claims Judge H. W. English.
ELIZABETHTOWN, Ky., Feb. 14.—Judge Horace W. English, one of the most prominent citizens of this place, died at 11:30 o'clock last night. He was stricken with paralysis ten days ago and his condition continued to grow worse until death ensued.

Judge English was for three terms County Judge here. He was sixty-seven years of age and leaves a wife and eleven children.

A Weak Stomach
causes a weak body and invites disease. Koda Dyspepsia Cure cures and strengthens the stomach, and wards off and overcomes disease. J. B. Taylor, a prominent merchant of Christman, Tex., says: "I could not eat because of a weak stomach. I lost all strength and was run down in weight. All that money could do was done, but all hope of recovery vanished. Hearing of some wonderful cures effected by the use of Koda, I concluded to try it. The first bottle benefited me, and after taking four bottles I am fully restored to my normal strength, weight and health." J. H. Williams, druggist.

Endemic Violets With Cucumber.
Candy Cucumber, cure constipation forever. 25c. H. C. C. 7, Fall, druggists refund money.

Terrible Fate of a Lone Hunter.
PETERSBURG, Ky., Feb. 16.—W. D. Black, a "coon hunter," was last night in the wilds of Gunpowder Creek, when his dogs ran a coon up a large beech tree, which was afterward found to be hollow at the top. Black and his companions worked for an hour felling the tree. After doing so, and capturing four coons, a bright object caught their eyes, appearing from the depths of the hollow. They hastily made some wooden wedges and split the tree. The object that attracted their attention was a ten-dollar gold piece. But that was not all. A human skeleton was also found that crumbled to dust when exposed to the air, with the exception of the jaw bones. It is believed to be the skeleton of a man named Holt, who started from Bellevue, this county, to Glencoe, Ky., many years ago, but nothing was ever heard of him. It is believed that Holt, who was fond of hunting, climbed the tree and fell head foremost into the hollow, and was either instantly killed or died of starvation, being unable to find himself.

ROCKPORT, KY.

[Special to THE HERALD.]
Feb. 14.—Messrs. Dan Emdue and Geo. Deedler, of Iowa, are here at work on the factory plant and mill which will be of great benefit to Rockport and community. They are rebuilding Mr. M. J. Reid's old mill and will rebuild it for flitching the elm timber. Mr. Emdue says he will work fifty men at the factory. He has the I. C. railroad company and will push the work as long as the weather will permit.

The chemical plant is moving along nicely. They have about twenty men at work on the building. They have the lot graded above high water mark, and the frame for this plant is already up. The next to come will be a Deposit Bank which is sure to follow in a short time.

The next enterprise will be Mr. L. G. Emdue's new store on Main street. Mr. W. H. Sharner, of Livermore, has opened up a general store here in the S. & M. J. Reid building, formerly the Rockport News office. Rockport can be up with any town in Ohio county if she will just keep on pressing forward. If our town keeps on growing in prosperity like it has in the last four months, it will almost be the garden spot of Kentucky. It has as good transportation facilities as any town could ask for.

Mr. T. F. Harris, of Evansville, was in town last Tuesday.

Ed Sherwell, of Louisville, was here to-day.

Mrs. Peter Cairnes and daughter, Miss Mand, returned last Wednesday from Hattisburg, Miss., where they have been visiting Mr. Peter Cairnes and son, Alex, for the last eight weeks.

Miss Emma Hooge, of McHenry, is visiting Miss Mabel Maddox.

Messrs. Cleve Iler, Owen Carpenter and Lester Polk, of Hartford, filled their regular appointments here Sunday.

Rev. W. B. Doyle, of Louisville, preached an interesting sermon in the Presbyterian church here last Sunday.

Miss Nettie Williams is confined to her room with typhoid fever.

Miss Jessie Nance, of Cevalco, is visiting Miss Mabel Maddox.

Mrs. J. R. Layton went to Beaver Dam yesterday.

The Grayson Leader says that Muncie, Ind., glass manufacturers contemplate building glass works at Rockport, Kentucky. Well, I hope the Leader is right on this subject, for that is why we have the chemical plant here. When the committee was trying to raise $2,000 they said it was for glass works, and by saying this, everybody subscribed freely, thinking they would not have it to pay, as they were used to blowing here, before but not glass.

Mr. Cleveland Williams, of Henderson, is in the city, the guest of D. J. Wilcox.

For Stomach Troubles.

"I have taken a great many different medicines for stomach trouble and am still suffering," says Mrs. S. Geiger, of Dunkerton, Iowa, "but never had as good result from any as from Chamberlain's Stomach & Liver Tablets." For sale by Z. Wayne Griffin & Bro.

At One Half the Cost
has better strength and flavor than many so-called "fancy" brands. Bulk coffee at the same price is not to be compared with Lion in quality. In 1 lb. air-tight, sealed packages.

THE NEWS IN BRIEF.

Over $3,000 was subscribed for State work and about $5,000 was pledged for county organization at the State Y. M. C. A. convention at Lexington.

Heavy snows and severe cold are reported from various places in the West. In Wyoming the snow is the deepest ever known and cattle men now fear serious losses.

The commercial coal mined in Kentucky during last year was 6,431,366 short tons, an increase of 1,096,554 tons over 1901. The output and increase are the greatest for any year in the State's history.

At Gloucester, Mass., Sunday, services were held for the fishermen who lost their lives at sea during the year. Seventy-four little girls dropped seventy-four flowers on the ocean, each blossom being for a dead fisherman.

Pittsburg and Chicago capitalists will purchase 30,000 acres of coal land in Harlan, Jackson and Bell counties, Kentucky, and another large tract over the Virginia line. A railroad will be run into the territory, and several millions of dollars spent in developing the mineral and timber resources.

H. C. Robertson, the star alibi witness for Jim Howard, has apparently gone for good. He was under bond of $500 on the charge of false swearing in the Franklin Circuit Court. This bond was forfeited at the term last fall, and Robertson's bondsman, N. L. McDaniel, a Frankfort business man, has paid over the amount.

The public sessions of the Anthracite Coal Strike Commission ended Friday, when Clarence S. Darrow finished his closing speech for the miners. The commission will begin secret sessions in Washington to-morrow. A decision is expected by the end of February. If an increase in wages is granted the miners, it will date from November 1, the day when the miners resumed work, leaving their cause in the hands of the commission.

Winter coughs are apt to result in consumption if neglected. They can be soon broken up by using Foley's Honey and Tar. J. H. Williams.

Take Notice!

All persons indebted to the firm of Z. Wayne Griffin & Bro., or to the estate of T. L. Griffin, will please call on me and settle same, as the firm's business and the estate must be closed up. Unless you give this attention NOW, the accounts and notes will be placed in the hands of an attorney and you may have costs to pay.

All persons having claims against the said firm will present same to me for payment, and any claims against the estate of said T. L. Griffin, should be presented properly proven, at my place of business in Hartford, Ky., on or before the first day of April, 1903. Respectfully, Z. WAYNE GRIFFIN, 613. Executor.

A Thousand Dollars Thrown Away.

Mr. W. B. Baker, of Plainview, Neb., writes: "My wife had long been suffering for over fifteen years. We tried a number of doctors and spent over a thousand dollars without any relief. She was very low and I lost all hope, when a friend suggested trying Foley's Honey and Tar, which I did; and thanks be to this great remedy, it saved her life. She is stronger and enjoys better health than she has ever known in ten years. We shall never be without Foley's Honey and Tar. Would ask those afflicted to try it." J. H. Williams.

Boy Thieves Whipped in Public.

LOUISA, Ky., Feb. 14.—Ben Prater and Will Holley, aged 14 and 15 respectively, were severely whipped in the public square by their fathers, in compliance with an agreement made with the Court. The boys were before the Court on a charge of stealing chickens. The proof of their guilt was conclusive.

The Judge proposed to their fathers that if they would publicly administer a sound thrashing to the boys with switches, laying on the lashes until the Marshal said the punishment was sufficient, he would dismiss the cases. The fathers promptly accepted the proposition, and taking the youngsters into the court yard, carried out the agreement in a faithful and energetic manner. A large crowd witnessed the affair.

Awful Crime of Young Girl.

ASHLAND, Ky., Feb. 14.—Blanche Collins, a pretty sixteen-year-old mountain girl, whose parents reside in Wyoming county, W. Va., not far from the town of Osassee, is in jail at that place charged with the murder of a seven-year-old school boy.

Her brother, who is grown, and who it is charged, was the instigator of the crime, has not been captured, but citizens are in pursuit.

The Collins girl and the victim of her anger, with probably a dozen other pupils, were on their way home from school when the children lined up, five or six on a side, and engaged in a school fight. Rocks soon began to fly, and the Collins girl was hit on the head by one of them. It rendered her furious and also her grown brother, who was with the crowd. It is alleged he told her to go back and kill the one who struck her. She went back, and picked up a heavy stone, it is charged, struck the seven-year-old lad with it.

The heavy stone crushed his skull, killing him instantly. Ball has been refused the girl.

Assaults of a Girl Arrested.

HAVESVILLE, Ky., Feb. 15.—Marshall Belderson, of Tell City, Ind., and Sheriff Cunningham, of Cannelton, arrived here this morning in charge of Joe Rice and Charles Wince, charged with assaulting a Miss Wince of Tell City, Thursday night. The girl is 18, resides at Troy, Ind., and is a cripple. She is said to have been a sweetheart of Rice's. The boys are about 18. People of neighboring towns are much worked up over the matter. It is said that the relatives of the girl are wealthy and will prosecute the boys to the end.

We have just put in a hominy mill and are prepared to make the finest grain hominy. Give us a call. R. L. TWEDDELL, Hartford, Ky.

My Hair

"I had a very severe sickness that took off all my hair. I purchased a bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor and it brought all my hair back again."
W. D. Quinn, Marseilles, Ill.

One thing is certain, Ayer's Hair Vigor makes the hair grow. This is because it is a hair food. It feeds the hair and the hair grows, that's all there is to it. It stops falling of the hair, too, and always restores color to gray hair.

$1.00 a bottle. All druggists.
If your druggist cannot supply you, send us one dollar and we will express you a bottle. Be sure and give the name of your nearest express office. Address, J. C. AYER CO., Lowell, Mass.

FRIEDLAND, KY.

[Special to THE HERALD.]
Eld. J. W. Bristow filled H. D. Burch's regular appointment at Cane Run church last Saturday and Sunday.

An extension may be had on these tickets by depositing with joint agent on or before February 28 and payment of fee of 50c. Tickets may be used either over the I. C. or Y. & M. V. between Memphis and New Orleans. S. B. VANMETER, Agt.

Mysterious Circumstance.

One was pale and sorrow and the other fresh and rosy. Whence the difference? She who is blushing with health uses Dr. King's New Life Pills to maintain it. By gently arousing the lazy organs they compel good digestion and head off constipation. Try them. Only 25c. at J. H. Williams' drugstore, Hartford, Ky.

Killed Himself on His Wife's Grave.

GRINNELL, Ia., 14.—Arthur B. Turner, traveling representative of a Chicago paper company, was found dead on the grave of his wife in this city. He had committed suicide by shooting.

A TEXAS WONDER.

Hall's Great Discovery. One small bottle of Hall's Great Discovery cures all kidney and bladder troubles, removes gravel, cures diabetes, seminal emissions, weak and lame backs, rheumatism and all irregularities of the kidneys and bladder in both men and women; regulates bladder troubles in children. If not sold by your druggist, it will be sent by mail on receipt of $1. One small bottle is two months' treatment, and will cure any case above mentioned. Dr. E. W. Hall, sole manufacturer, P. O. Box 629, St. Louis, Mo. Send for testimonials. Sold by all druggists and T. P. Taylor & Co., Druggists, Third and Jefferson, Louisville.

READ THIS!

HOPKINSVILLE, Ky., June 7th, 1901. Dr. E. W. Hall, St. Louis, Mo.—Dear Sir: I suffered ten years with severe kidney and bladder troubles, and at times was unable to work. I was advised to try your Texas Wonder, and after using one-fourth of one bottle, I passed a large gravel, and I have never suffered since passing the same, three years ago. I have recommended it to many others, who reported themselves cured. I most heartily recommend it to all sufferers from kidney or bladder diseases. SAM DEAN.

DO YOU NEED MONEY?

You can get it if you have any Real Estate to sell.
